OLD BUSINESS:

Cou. S. Broker hired realtor and broker Dave Tully to give us an appraisal of the Cody Pass property. We are still waiting to hear.

NEW BUSINESS:

Cou. K. Broker made motion to have Ohio Diesel repair bucket truck for $8200; 2nd by Cou. S. Broker. Accepted by all. Before we tell Ohio Diesel to do the work, Cou. Fresch will check with his brother in law who is a mechanic and see if this is a reasonable quote.

Mayor and solicitor are working on modifying Ord. 2019-03 and 2006-03 & 04. These pertain to grass and weed cutting and nuisances in yards. They will address council when done and council can decide how to move forward. Mayor made some calls regarding grass cutting and so far, all have complied.

A contractor for a new house cut in to the road and did not restore it to its original condition. Mayor will call and tell them it is unacceptable and they need to do it correctly to get their deposit back. Mayor will also call and get a quote to fix it properly. Going forward, with this situation, we will get a professional quote and then give them 30 days to bring the road back to original condition or they will forfeit the cost.

Fraternal Order of Police invites us to the annual Erie County Memorial for fallen officers. It is May 9th at 2pm in Washington Park.

Benefit for Officer Glenn Schenk will be May 30th at noon at the park.

Cou. S. Broker made motion to spend up to $700 for flowers and plants for the shoreline; 2ⁿ by Cou. K. Broker. Accepted by all. We need additional money
